2007 Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original

Ann Arbor, MI – The Ann Arbor Street Art Fair is the Original of the four art fairs that comprise the award-winning Ann Arbor Art Fairs. Collectively, the fairs draw more than half a million visitors each year. The 48th annual Ann Arbor Street Art Fair takes place on North University Avenue and the University of Michigan's grassy Ingalls Mall and Diag. This year's Fair opens on Wednesday, July 18th and continues through Saturday, July 21st, 2007. The hours of the Fair are 10:00 AM – 9:00 PM Wednesday through Friday and 10:00 AM – 6:00 PM on Saturday.

As a small non-profit community arts organization, the Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original's purpose is to connect art and artists with an appreciative audience. This goal is accomplished through the Street Art Fair's highly selective jurying and a rich assortment of activities that involve leading community and educational groups from throughout Michigan. In addition to the 175 artists showcased at the Fair, the Street Art Fair offers music and dance performances, ArtZone workshops and community art projects, and artist demonstrations to create a holistic art experience.

Infiniti Performances at the Tower

This year's performance schedule includes an exciting and eclectic mix of music, dance and magic by local community groups and professionals. Hear everything from the Macpodz's disco-bebop to one of Michigan's top barbershop choruses. Watch Congolese or belly dancing, or enjoy a comedy magic show! Check out Washtenaw Community College music and dance shows, Eastern Michigan University's ballroom dancing, and the Ann Arbor School of Performing Arts jazz ensemble comprised of middle school and high school students. If that weren't enough, Mr. B. will be tickling the ivories in the middle of the tents on North University Avenue, and look out for our Living Statue and other street performers as you stroll through the Fair.

A complete schedule of the Infiniti Performances at the Tower is included in this document.
